Dashboard Page

This page shows the results of all of the HKrules data analysis performed for the selected race. The page is divided into three primary columns, as follows.

- The first column contains race details, primarily the entries. The currently selected entry is highlighted in yellow (note that the initial display highlights the top rated selection)

- The second column contains details of the selected entry.
- The third column contains form statistics of the selected entry.

Column One

Entries

Each race entry with a link so that when clicked details associated with that entry are displayed.

Links

- HKJC Race View link
- SCMP race view link
- Link to the Speed Pro page for the race that is available on the HKJC website
- Link to the Odds page that is available on the HKJC website

Column Two

Details

Trainer	Trainer name. The link on the details will cause the HKrules Trainer Stats page to be displayed.
Jockey	Jockey name. The link on the details will cause the HKrules Jockey Stats page to be displayed.
Form	The placings for the last six runs for the selection are shown with latest on the right, with season change indicated by a “-“.
Progress	+, - or =, indicating progress recorded for each of past six runs as defined by the Official Rating (Ofr) after running in each race. Note that the final progress indicator is derived from the current Ofr compared with the Ofr prior to the last race.
Opt Grade	A calculated optimum class for this horse, based on past Speed Ratings achieved.
Rest	Number of days since last run. 0 indicates first run in Hong Kong.
Draw	If summarised as Low, MidLow, MidHigh or High draw ranges. The actual draw is shown in brackets. The link on the draw will cause the HKrules Draw Stats page to be displayed.
Age	Current horse age.
Lbs	Weight carried. Included for information only as I don't generally take weight carried into consideration, as described in the Does Weight Matter topic.
Body Weight	Horse body weight is one of the data items available in Hong Kong that is not readily available in many other racing jurisdictions. Its usefulness is a matter of opinion, though I find it quite informative. I am loath to get involved financially if a horse's body weight differs significantly from the norm. The variation from norm is shown in the statistics column, see below.

Spr	The HKrules speed rating is calculated for every horse in every past race, as described in the Speed Rating Calculation topic. The Spr used for future race entries here is basically 50% of the most recent speed rating plus 30% of the speed rating two races ago plus 20% of the speed rating three races ago. If the horse has only run two races then the proportions are 65% and 35% and if only one race then 100%.
Avg/Top Spr in last year	This is the average and best speed ratings calculated for races in the past 12 months.
Rtg	The Hkrules overall rating which is based on expectations relating to Draw, Jockey, Trainer and Speed Rating points clear. Please refer to the Rating calculation help topic for more information.
Class Rtg	Shows a summary of results in the best class won by the horse and/or beaten by up to 2 lengths over the past 12 months. Total of one point for each win and half point if beaten up to 2 lengths.
Opt Pace	This is calculated by examining the past races that the horse ran in during the last 12 months. The pace of each race is examined for the races where the horse ran to within 10 points of his best speed rating. The pace that figures most in the extract is deemed to be his optimum pace.
Opt Style	This is calculated by examining the past races that the horse ran in during the last 12 months. The style that the horse ran to is examined for the races where the horse ran to within 10 points of his best speed rating. The style that figures most in the extract is deemed to be his optimum style.
Ofr	The current HKJC official rating for the horse.
Gear	The head gear currently in use by the horse
Id	The HKJC horse brand. This provides a unique four character horse id, used in some page links.

These links relate to links to other pages that contain details specific to the current horse.

Links to the three most recent barrier trials that the horse has run in are displayed here, plus minimal result details. The trial id can be clicked to view the trials page on the HKJC website.

Column Three

Statistics

This column gives a view as to the effectiveness of the horse, trainer and jockey, based on various criteria. The horse statistics can then be compared with the equivalent criteria in the current race (highlighted in yellow) and a view taken regarding suitability for the current race. The statistics show number of wins, places (2nd or 3rd) and total number of runs for each criteria, as follows.

Horse Stats (Career)

All Races	Total number of wins and places for all turf races that the horse ran in.
Class	Number of wins and places by class of turf races that the horse ran in.
Course	Number of wins and places at Happy Valley and Sha Tin
Distance	Number of wins and places by race distance of turf races that the horse ran in.
Pace	Number of wins and places by race pace of turf races that the horse ran in, the perceived pace of the current race is highlighted in yellow.

Horse Stats (12 Mths)

All Races	Total number of wins and places for all turf races that the horse ran in during the last 12 months.
Class	Number of wins and places by class of turf races that the horse ran in during the last 12 months.
Course	Number of wins and places at Happy Valley and Sha Tin
Distance	Number of wins and places by race distance of turf races that the horse ran in.
Body Wgt	Using the current body weight as a start point (highlighted in yellow), the number of wins and places when body weight within plus or minus 10lbs of that weight. Then equivalent figures for bodyweight variations of 20lbs under or over that range. See topic Does Weight Matter for more information.

Collateral Form

There are two pages associated with the collateral form topic.

Firstly the following page is displayed that shows the net number of pounds superiority when comparing two horses from the race that have met before. Please refer to the notes present on the screen for a description of relevance of -ve and +ve signage.

Each collateral column contains weight adjusted form comparison between the horse at the top and the horse on the left. These figures reflect the weight carried in past meetings and distance beaten. They are also adjusted for weight carried in the current race.
 If +ve then the horse on the top is deemed to be superior to the horse on the left, by that number of Lbs.
 If -ve then the horse on the top is deemed to be inferior to the horse on the left, by that number of Lbs.
